Meet the new competition - Minigolf Tour 2017

Minigolf Tour 2017, the new minigolf competition open to all with a scheduled debut for later this month.

Aimed at all those who seeks new challenges, this competition aims to extend the competitive side of the sport to all minigolf lovers.

The Minigolf Tour 2017 will start on the last weekend of October, 28th and 29th, with the first of three stages to be played in the Minigolf field of the "União Desportiva Praiense" in the Azores.

The second stage will be held in Lagos, Algarve, from November 25th to 26th, and the third and final stage will take place in Costa Nova at the beginning of 2018, from 6th to 7th January.

In each stage will be played 3 laps on Saturday afternoon, and 3 laps on Sunday morning.

Looking for the Prize Money

Each stage will be played in the strokeplay system, where the player with the fewest strokes wins. At the end of each stage, the winners will be awarded with medals.

At each stage the players will be scored according to their result. The score counts for the General Ranking that is calculated by the sum of points of the three stages, being winner the player with the most points.

Each player will compete to get maximum points per stage, with their eyes on the ambitious Prize Money, which will be delivered at the end of the last step for top ranking players.

Registration is now open

Entries for the Minigolf Tour 2017 are already open. Each of the stages will have a registration fee of €10, and it is not mandatory to play all the 3 stages. However, to play for the Prize Money it will certainly be advantageous to be present at all stages, in order to achieve the maximum number of points possible.
